

Ceramics Claude Cabanat

Description

Ceramic wall plaque in relief depicting a rooster in the morning making "Cocorico" It features an artistic, stylized representation of a rooster with slender lines, embellished with floral motifs and graphic scrolls reminiscent of mid-20th century aesthetics. The enamel work offers subtle shades of beige, ochre and almond green that contrast elegantly with the satin brown background. The semicircular border is highlighted by a delicately stamped geometric frieze, reinforcing the piece's sculptural and meticulous appearance. The authenticity of this piece is guaranteed by its original label preserved on the reverse: Atelier Sainte-Hélène - Céramiques d'Art. Designed by Claude Cabanat.
