Description

This rare and daring piece, conceived by designer Guy Lefebvre, embodies the spirit of 70s luxury furniture. Combining sculptural aesthetics and technical ingenuity, it metamorphoses from an elegant wall console into a convivial dining table. When this piece of furniture forms a console, it features a semi-octagonal shape with clean, graphic lines. The top is warmly finished with a polished brass border. When this piece of furniture forms a table, the reverse side of the top reveals a surface with brushed metallic highlights, creating a modern contrast with the structure. Thanks to a deployment system with invisible hinges, the console transforms into an octagonal table. The square-section tubular base in high-quality polished brass, offering perfect stability and a luxurious sheen. Beautiful overall
