Description

Walnut desk table, made in the first half of the XXe century and bearing the stamp of Atiligérien master cabinetmaker Henry Geneste, a guarantee of quality and traditional craftsmanship. The top, with its sober, balanced lines, rests on four elegantly tapered legs. In the front, a wide, finely molded drawer testifies to the attention to detail and offers practical storage space. The warm patina of the walnut enhances the natural grain of the wood and lends the ensemble a refined presence. This piece, both functional and decorative, blends easily into a classic or more contemporary interior. An authentic, signature desk that will appeal to lovers of quality antique furniture. Era: 1st Part XXth Very good condition Waxed finish Delivery possible in France and internationally on
