Description

A set of four rectangular planters is the perfect choice for lovers of classic garden ornaments. Made from lead, these pieces offer a robustness and patina that only time can bestow. Each planter is richly decorated with a central bas-relief depicting a neoclassical garland of blooming flowers, suspended by elegant ribbons and bows. The lead shows a deep anthracite-gray patina with whitish nuances and some traces of natural oxidation, emphasizing the relief of the decorations and the lived-in nature of the objects.
