BRONZED BRASS CONSOLE TABLE WITH 2 SHELVES AND CLEAR GLASS , 1970s MINIMALIST AND ELEGANT DESIGN .

Dimensions 120 x 40 cm, h 95 cm

This is a two-tiered Mid-Century modernist console table dating from the 1970s. The piece features a geometric structure in burnished or patinated brass with two glass shelves. This specific design, characterized by clean lines, draws strong inspiration from the work of prominent designers and brands of the Hollywood Regency period and international modernism, such as Milo Baughman, Belgochrom, or high-end Italian manufacturers. Materials: Load-bearing structure in square metal tubing (brass/bronze), surfaces in clear tempered glass. Configuration: Two-tier (main upper shelf and lower shelf for books or
