Description

This English rocking chair in molded mahogany seduces with the nobility of its wood and the balance of its lines, immediately offering the warm, refined presence of early 20th-century British furniture. Its flat back and seat upholstered in patinated fawn leather give it an authentic, timeless look, highlighted by discreet studding that emphasizes the quality of the upholstery. The straight leather-wrapped armrests, supported by graceful turned spindles, add structured elegance while ensuring natural comfort. Resting on a spring structure that softens movement and guarantees supple seating, the armchair is also mounted on small castors, a detail typical of English chairs designed to be moved with ease in salons and boudoirs. Its perfectly balanced, curved legs offer a fluid,
