Description

This small Napoleon III coffee table in blackened wood and precious wood marquetry displays all the decorative refinement of the XIXe century, offering a burr cedar top magnified by light and stained wood marquetry with delicately arranged geometric motifs, The front also adopts a subtle movement and opens with a finely integrated drawer, Adorned with a chased bronze knob that testifies to the attention paid to the smallest detail, the ensemble rests on four exquisitely turned legs, linked by two spacer shelves also veneered with burr cedar and edged with an ingot mould, creating a perfect harmony between structure, materials and décor, this piece embodies the precious, sophisticated spirit of the Napoleon III style, where the virtuosity of rare essences dialogues with the brilliance of bronze to offer a
