typical of the Louis XV style. Each leg is adorned with a gilt bronze drop, ending in an attractive sabot that protects and enriches the base of the piece. The ensemble testifies to masterful cabinetmaking, where the quality of the materials is combined with precise execution. Thanks to its well-balanced dimensions, this highly decorative piece of furniture can equally well be used as a small desk, a coffee table or, why not, an elegant and functional console in an entrance hall or bedroom.Era: Early 20thVery good conditionVarnished finishDelivery possible in France and internationally on quotation.Width: 101 cmDepth: 59 cmHeight: 75.5 cmRef.575V
