Description

Nando Conti, "Perseus and Pegasus," in bronze, signed, 20th centuryBronze sculpture with a dark patina depicting the myth of Perseus and Pegasus. Signed "N. Conti" on the base. Period: 20th century.Dimensions: 39 x 34 cm.1930sThe work stands out for its extraordinary sculptural energy and vibrant compositional dynamism, typical of early 20th-century artistic casting. The artist reinterprets the classical myth by freezing the moment in a dramatic twist of forms: the winged hero Perseus, captured in a tense and agile pose, vigorously embraces the steed Pegasus, who rears up with fervor.The modeling, characterized by a dynamic, undulating surface that captures the light while accentuating its chiaroscuro effects, draws on the tradition of late-nineteenth-century sculpture in the Impressionist and Scapigliati
