Description

Chest of drawers / Original Italian postmodern design sideboard, circa 1975-1985. Italian craftsmanship in the spirit of Luigi Sormani and Space Age design. It features a curved, rosewood-veneered frame with four central drawers and two cylindrical side cabinets with curved doors, revealing interior shelves. Rounded top with an asymmetrical rim height. Chromed aluminum crossbars adorn the front. It rests on its original angled casters. A beautiful piece that could also serve as a bar. Side storage compartments for glasses or bottles. Very high-quality craftsmanship and a sculptural design typical of Italian furniture from the 1970s and 80s. Minor wear consistent with age and use. An elegant vintage piece in excellent overall condition. Careful and secure shipping
