Description

Attractive Regency-period chest of drawers opening with five drawers on the front, three of which are in the top row. The drawers feature large reserve motifs surrounded by small reserves in typical Regency spandrels. The front jambs are rounded and molded, while the side panels are molded with an accolade at the top. The top is made of walnut with an original scalloped edge. Good condition, with minor wear and maintenance. Regional 18th-century work.
