Description

Delicate and refined watercolor on cardboard signed and dated 1904 by the painter Cesare Jamucci, depicting the "Madonna of the Olive Tree", a Marian subject full of sweetness and devotion. The artwork features an elegant and harmonious composition characterized by soft luminous colors, with the Virgin seated holding the Child in a calm and contemplative atmosphere. The architectural setting and decorative background enriched with symbolic olive branches are also particularly appealing. The watercolor is enhanced by its beautiful original period frame in gilt wood with gold leaf decoration, richly adorned with floral and vegetal relief motifs, perfectly representative of early 20th century decorative taste. A charming and decorative work, ideal for collectors of sacred
