Description

Pair of Giulia Mangani Lamps
Pair of large shell-shaped lamps by Giulia Mangani
Refined and elegant ceramic lamps.
The ceramist has masterfully reproduced two large seashells using ceramic and glazes.
The Mangani workshop has been active in Italy since the late 1800s.
The lamps feature a square brass base.
They are in excellent condition with no missing pieces or chips; please note that one of the two has a slight, practically invisible crack, which does not compromise its beauty or integrity.
The lamps are in working condition and are sold without lampshades.
Made in Italy, circa 1980s.
