Description

An elegant drawing on paper by the French painter Henri Sollier, created in the early 20th century. The work depicts a refined scene in the Symbolist style, featuring female figures immersed in a suspended, intimate atmosphere, rendered through the soft, evocative lines typical of French graphic art of the period. The drawing is presented in an elegant frame with decorative semi-precious stone inlays that complement the work well and enhance its aesthetic impact. A work of remarkable decorative charm, ideal for collectors of French graphic art and for elegant, sophisticated settings. Dimensions: Drawing: 40 x 32 cm Frame: 58 x 48 cm Period: Early 20th century Condition: Good overall condition with normal, slight signs of aging.
