Description

Elegant pair of polychrome regule candleholders from the second half of the 19th century, depicting two young pages in Renaissance-inspired costume each holding a lantern forming a binet. The characters show subtle differences in their attitudes, faces and the details of their costumes and accessories, bringing much life and elegance to the whole. Beautiful quality of carving and chasing for this decorative work typical of the historicist taste of the late 19th century. The original polychromy, delicately worn by time, retains all its charm and underlines the authentic character of the pair. Very decorative together, equally at home in a classic or eclectic interior. Dimensions: Height: 36 cm Base diameter: 14.5 cm We deliver and ship worldwide.
