Description

A delicate watercolor from the late 18th century depicting a gallant scene imbued with grace and poetry. An elegantly dressed young woman, holding in her left hand a wreath of flowers symbolizing innocence and country freshness, tenderly embraces a small dog. Beside her, a young boy dressed in a red habit enlivens the scene with his flute. The wooded decor and luminous landscape enhance the bucolic charm of this refined composition. Similar period frame in wood and gilded with gold leaf.- Outside dimensions frame : 38 x 31,5 cms.
