Description

Multi-layered blown glass vase with hot-applications. It is signed Michèle Luzoro and dated 1991. It is titled ??? bleu tigré (the first word is difficult to read). It is in very good condition. Height 38 cm Diameter at widest 14 cm Michèle Luzoro is a master glassmaker. She was born in Biot in 1949. She met Jean Claude Novaro at Eloi Monod's glassworks, where she worked as an executive secretary. In 1977, with her husband JC Novaro, they set up their own workshop. She exchanged creative ideas with him, a great creator of unique pieces with an overflowing imagination. In 1982, she took over the workshop after their divorce. With the help of two accomplished glassmakers, she created her own pieces. The adventure lasted thirty years. Her pieces are harmonious and feminine.
