Description

Like a large chest of drawers, this pretty little two-drawer inlaid chest of drawers in the pure Louis XV style has everything to seduce. Made in the 19th century, with its pretty dark pink brèche marble and front decorated with handles, keyholes and sabots, in a thick veneer of rosewood, it is edged on three sides with rosewood (parquetage), functional with its two drawers, it has all the characteristics of a large one, preserved from time and decorative, this "Curiosity" piece has everything to seduce with its appearance and respected proportion; in good condition, a decorative piece not devoid of charm in the tradition of the 18th century...
