Description

The artist Germaine Chardon, born Germaine Huet (1891 - 1980), was the daughter of Paul Gauguin, born of a relationship he had in 1890 with Juliette Henri Huet. She was a student at the Académie royale des Beaux-Arts in Brussels, where she studied with Frans Smeers. She chose Germaine Chardon as her pseudonym, and she liked to include a thistle design on some of her works (the thistle on the back of our painting). Oil on canvas signed lower right.

Contresigned, located and dated on the back. Dimensions: 40 cm x 50 cm. Perfect condition. Sold unframed. Shipping: Secure packaging and dispatched by Colissimo with insurance, for metropolitan France: 20 EUR - Europe 30 EUR
