Lynton Porcelain Scent Bottle Set Stefan Nowacki Signed Hand Painted Boxed 6pc

2 253 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : En l'etat

Description

Boxed set contains six individual fine bone china scent bottles manufactured by the Lynton Porcelain Company, each featuring hand-painted decorations by Stefan Nowacki. The collection is housed in a blue, silk-lined, hinged presentation case with the factory logo embossed in gold on the interior lid. The set includes a variety of forms: a teardrop-shaped bottle in emerald green with a maritime sailing vessel; a cylindrical cobalt blue bottle depicting a castle ruin; a globular green bottle with a naval seascape; a pink heart-shaped bottle featuring a floral bouquet and musical instruments; a square-sided white bottle with an exotic bird; and a circular moon-flask bottle showing a mountainous river landscape. Each bottle is accented with 22ct gold gilding, including neoclassical swags, scrolls, and borders. Several pieces feature raised "jeweled" enamel dots in turquoise and white. Each bottle is fitted with a coordinating gilded porcelain stopper in various flame or acorn shapes. The signature "S. Nowacki" is visible on the hand-painted reserves. Every bottle carries a gilt printed factory mark on the base. The bottles range in height from approximately 5cm to 8cm, and the collection remains in its original fitted cream satin interior.
