Description

Beautiful suite of three nesting tables in red lacquer with gold decoration of birds in flight, flowering branches and plant motifs in the spirit of traditional Chinese productions. The tops feature elegant painted and gilded decoration on a vermilion-red background, offering a beautiful decorative effect. The openwork strut bases with their geometric lines are reminiscent of certain models of Asian-inspired furniture made for export in the mid-twentieth century. Chinese workmanship in the spirit of traditional Chinese production. Chinese work from the first half of the 20th century. The set is in good overall condition with a fine decorative presence. There are a few small chips and wear to the lacquer, visible in the photographs, without detracting from the aesthetics of the set. A charming set of two
