

German Burgundy

4 500 EUR

Period : 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Description

A 16th-century German-made burgon, characterized by its typical bell-shaped form with a contoured crest and engraved floral motifs along the brim. The surface displays an even patina with signs of wear consistent with its age, while the engraved floral decorations remain clearly visible. A representative example of German Renaissance armor.
