Description

Elegant wall-mounted openwork carved wood trophy of arms, featuring an antique-inspired crested helmet surrounded by crossed spears, trunk, ribbons and stylized foliage. This decorative composition, directly inherited from the neoclassical vocabulary and military trophy models of the 18th century, evokes themes of victory, prestige and power. The beautiful polychromy combining black, deep red and gilding gives it a highly decorative and refined presence. The sculptural workmanship is beautifully executed, with a pleasing relief. With its generous dimensions and balanced aesthetic, this piece makes a remarkable wall decoration in a classic, eclectic or contemporary interior. Late 19th - Good overall condition with light wear from use and minor alterations consistent with
