Description

This elegant mahogany and mahogany burl veneer console table features rich veining and balanced lines. The mirror, perfectly integrated into the structure, catches the light and amplifies the depth of the piece, underlining the finesse of the violonné legs whose controlled curves add a touch of grace and lightness. The concave spacer, set on subtle toupie legs, links the whole with architectural elegance, while reinforcing the furniture's stability and presence. The quality of the burl veneer, with its silky reflections and vibrant veining, gives this console table a precious character, while its sober lines make it equally at home in a classic interior or a more contemporary setting. A decorative piece as much as a functional one, it embodies the timeless charm of Restoration furniture, capable of
