Description

Design coffee table by Philippe Jean 1970's
1970's design coffee table by Philippe Jean, with a resolutely "space age" aesthetic. Its distinctive double offset top creates a play of levels and a distinctive graphic silhouette. The burgundy-red lacquer finish is contrasted by an aluminum frame that emphasizes the lines and catches the light. A low, stable base designed for a living room, with a sculptural presence without being massive. A strong piece, ideal in a contemporary, vintage or pop interior.
