Description

Moroccan rug (Taznakht), Middle Atlas, Mid-20th Century This superb rug of Moroccan origin is a unique piece handwoven in the Middle Atlas, probably in the Taznakht region. It features a bold, geometric composition characteristic of Berber craftsmanship, with a brick-red central field adorned with three vertically arranged hexagonal medallions. The central medallion stands out for its cream and navy blue hues, surrounded by an intricate border, while the darker outer medallions create a striking contrast. Technical Features: Type : Hand-knotted rug. Origin : Morocco (Middle Atlas). Dimensions : 150 x 250 Cm Materials : 100% Wool. Condition : Excellent condition. An authentic example that will bring warmth and authenticity to your home. Contact me for more information and
