Description

Moser Bohemian Frosted and Gilt Art Glass Trumpet Vase
A superb antique Bohemian art glass vase by Moser, of elegant trumpet form with a scalloped rim and finely spreading circular foot. Richly decorated throughout with raised gilt floral ornament over a frosted ground, this is a highly decorative and luxurious example of late 19th to early 20th century art glass. The vase is beautifully embellished with flowering branches, foliage, and berry motifs which rise gracefully from the foot and continue across the flared body and neck. The contrast between the soft frosted finish and the brilliant hand-applied gilding gives the piece excellent depth and visual impact, while the refined silhouette reflects the quality and sophistication for which Moser is celebrated. Both sculptural and decorative, this elegant vase makes
