Description

Elegant decorative textile, probably Ottoman, embroidered entirely with silver metallic threads forming a rich calligraphic decoration. Stylized Arabic calligraphic decoration with an ornamental character. The composition is organized around a wide frame of stylized Arabic script, done in dense embroidery, framing a central panel adorned with vegetal and symbolic motifs. Particularly noteworthy is a crescent accompanied by a stylized star, decorative elements frequently associated with the ornamental art of the Ottoman world. The embroidery, executed with silver metallic thread, creates a refined relief and delicately captures the light. The ensemble presents beautiful craftsmanship testifying to the textile know-how of Near Eastern workshops. This textile could be
