

Woman With Mask, François Piquemal, Metal, France, 19th/20th Century

980 EUR

Signature : Francois Alphonse Piquemal (1869-1911)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Metal

Width : 37

Height : 53

Depth : 20

Description

Bust of a laughing woman, her eyes concealed by a theatrical mask. Her upturned hair is framed by the falling brim of a hat. The model's mischievous character is emphasized by the pleated collar of her low-cut dress. Signature: Piquemal. France, Art Nouveau, 19th/20th century. Burnished zinc. Dimensions: 53 cm x 37 cm x 20 cm Condition: good. François Alphonse Piquemal (1869-1911) - French artist specializing in busts of women. He is also known for his full-length representations of "femmes fatales" adorning Art Nouveau-style decorative vessels.

Dealer

Antiques Urbaniak

Arts et métiers des XVIIIe et XIXe siècles

Mobile : 0048 609 682 083

10 rue Wielka

Poznan 61774