Edwardian Sterling Silver Pierced Centerpiece James Deakin Sheffield 1907

2 255 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : En l'etat

Description

Edwardian Sterling Silver Two-Tier Centrepiece, James Deakin & Sons, Sheffield, 1907DescriptionAn elegant and finely crafted Edwardian sterling silver two-tier centrepiece, hallmarked in Sheffield in 1907 and produced by the esteemed silversmiths James Deakin & Sons.The centrepiece is executed in a refined hexagonal form, rising from a flared and pierced base to a central pedestal supporting two graduated tiers. Each tier is decorated with exceptional hand-pierced scrolling foliate and floral decoration, demonstrating the high level of craftsmanship associated with the finest Edwardian silver.The openwork continues throughout the stem and base, creating a beautifully balanced and highly decorative structure. When displayed, the pierced work

Dealer

Bushells Antiques
Antiques and Jewellery
Mobile : +447956268290

71-75 Shelton Street
Covent Garden WC2H

allows light to pass through the piece, enhancing its elegance and visual presence.The base bears a full and crisp set of British hallmarks, including the "JD&S" maker's mark, Sheffield crown, lion passant for sterling silver, and the date letter "p" for 1907, confirming its authenticity.Centrepieces of this quality were produced for formal dining tables in distinguished households and remain highly desirable today.?ConditionExcellent condition throughout. The centrepiece has been professionally cleaned and polished by a specialist silversmith and is now presented in superb condition, with no damage, faults, or repairs. The silver retains a beautiful bright finish, and the pierced decoration remains crisp and well defined. Ready for immediate use or display.?MeasurementsHeight: 30 cm (11.8 in)Maximum Width: 19 cm (7.5 in)Weight: 592 grams?Pricing Advice (current 1stDibs market)Because yours is:o Fully hallmarkedo Excellent makero Good weight (592g)o Professionally silversmith polished