Description

Elegant pastel and gouache on paper signed Jacques Fernand Gonin * depicting a young woman seated from behind in an interior, dressed in a sumptuous pink dress with satin highlights. The treatment of light and fabrics brings great elegance and movement to the scene. Very fine decorative work in the spirit of intimist, feminine scenes of the early XXe century. Beautiful original art deco frame. Measurement at sight : 58 cm Height / 38 cm Width .In very good condition.* Jacques Fernand Gonin was a French painter active in the second half of the XXe century. A discreet representative of modernized figurative painting, he distinguished himself with colorful compositions inspired by landscape and southern light. His work illustrates a search for balance
