Description

This charming provincial chest of drawers has stood the test of time, from the reign of Louis XV to the present day. It proudly bears the marks of its time and has not lost its superb appearance; the locks are there and it is functional with a beautiful classical assembly on a parquet floor, the lateral drawer pulls are efficient and allow easy use; of a beautiful blond coat this authentic piece has been maintained and has undergone old grafts, it is nevertheless a beautiful piece and has all the assets for an inspired decoration in the spirit of the XVIIIth , it is treated and it is of pretty proportion and well fleshed in a beautiful movement.. Opinion for this well-priced piece
