Description

Golden-brown patina bronze bust entitled Menina made in 1890 by Portuguese sculptor António Teixeira Lopes, a major artist of late 19th-century academic sculpture. This touching depiction of a young girl reveals all the artist's sensitivity in the treatment of expressions and volumes. The melancholy face, subtly tilted, contrasts with the animated work on the hair and clothing, treated with great freedom of movement. This bronze illustrates Teixeira Lopes' talent for childlike figures, imbued with emotion and poetic realism. Height: 23 cm Very good overall condition
