Description

An elegant Italian brooch crafted in 18-karat gold, embellished with a refined central micromosaic depicting two doves against a cobalt blue background. This piece of jewelry beautifully exemplifies the excellence of the Italian micromosaic tradition, a decorative technique that was particularly popular in the 19th century and during the Grand Tour era. The tiny tesserae create a composition of extraordinary artistic precision and great decorative richness. The gold frame is embellished with ornamental details and enamel accents that highlight the intense colors of the central micromosaic. The dove motif evokes symbols of love, harmony, and fidelity. A refined collector's piece ideal for enthusiasts of antique Italian micromosaics and decorative arts. Details 18K gold Weight: 18.5 grams Central
