Description

These two Louis XV-style bedside cabinets feature sinuous lines and curved legs that lend them great elegance. They are veneered in rosewood and adorned with a flower marquetry executed in stained and light wood, on the top, front and sides. Each bedside cabinet features three superimposed drawers with gilded bronze pull handles that accentuate the furniture's refined character. Beautiful bronze leaf trim adorns the uprights and legs, adding a rich, meticulous finish. Each piece is crowned by a top with a flowing outline enhanced by floral inlays. The result of quality craftsmanship, these two Louis XV bedside tables will bring distinction to the room of your choice.Epoque: Mid-20thExcellent condition after restoration in our workshop.Delivery on quotation in France
