Description

Rectangular coffee table by Guy Lefèvre for Maison Jansen, French work from the 1970s.It features an elegant black-lacquered metal structure with modernist-inspired geometric decor resting on four straight legs. The marbled gilded top provides a refined play of reflections and underlines the chic, timeless aesthetic characteristic of Guy Lefèvre's creations.With its sober, architectural lines, this coffee table is fully in keeping with the modernist neo-classical taste developed by Maison Jansen in the 1970s.
