Description

Bronze sculpture "Three runners" by Jan Desmarets. This sculpture is made in patinated bronze. Desmarets is particularly renowned for his ability to capture intense organic power, raw anatomical precision and fluid movement. His characteristic style is distinguished by deliberate fragmentation, rough textures and voids left in the bronze, giving the figures a timeless, dynamic appearance. Signed, numbered (719/1350) and dated (1996). This specific series of 1,350 pieces was commissioned in 1996 as a corporate gift or commemorative memento for the DVV insurance company. 15.5 cm wide, 5 cm deep and 14 cm high. Total weight 1.5 kg.
