Description

Louis-Philippe blond flamed walnut armoire - XIXe century
Elegant Louis-Philippe period cabinet in solid walnut and flamed walnut veneer, featuring a beautiful warm patina with honey tones. The two doors reveal a remarkable symmetrical veining, typical of fine mid-19e century designs, with a particularly decorative natural decoration. The molded cornice and sober lines give this piece all the timeless elegance of Louis-Philippe furniture. It rests on lightly molded legs and opens through two doors with lock and original entrance. Interior offering great storage capacity, ideal as a closet or linen closet. Very well preserved, with authentic charm and meticulous finishes. Features: Era: XIXe century
