

Pair Of Black Forest Carved Wooden Hunting Candlesticks

1 250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Description

This exceptional pair of Black Forest carved wooden candlesticks, dating from the 19th century, is richly decorated with traditional hunting motifs, characteristic of the famous Black Forest carving tradition. Hand-carved with great skill, these candlesticks feature finely crafted naturalistic details inspired by forest hunting scenes, testifying to the craftsmanship and rustic elegance typical of Alpine decorative arts of the period. Each candlestick is carved from solid wood, featuring a warm patina acquired over time. The upper part is designed to hold candles, combining aesthetics and functionality. Their strong decorative character makes them ideal for mountain chalets, hunting interiors or eclectic antique-inspired spaces. Origin: Black Forest, Europe Era: 19th century Material: Hand-carved
