

Napoleon III Display Cabinet In Blackened Rosewood - In The Style Of Hippolyte Sauvrezzy -

3 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : A restaurer

Material : Solid wood

Length : 1m55cm

Height : 2m90cm

Depth : 43cm

Description

Napoleon III Display Cabinet in Ebonized Rosewood - In the Style of Hippolyte Sauvrezzy - 19th Century An important Napoleon III period display cabinet in ebonized wood and rosewood veneer, crafted in the style of the prestigious works of Hippolyte Sauvrezzy, the renowned 19th-century Parisian cabinetmaker. This elegant antique display cabinet features an architecturally designed facade with two glazed doors revealing display shelves, ideal for a library, a cabinet of curiosities, or an art collection. The decoration is distinguished by rich Louis XVI style ornamentation: a sculpted, undulating pediment, a central cartouche, turned and fluted uprights, as well as beautiful molded panels at the bottom. The refined contrast between the ebonized wood and the warm-toned rosewood veneer gives this

Dealer

Antiquités Bauer Hubert

Généraliste

Tel : Instagram/Bauer__antiquites_brocante

Mobile : 0611074683

1350 route de Saint Etienne de tulmont

Montauban 82000

cabinet a striking decorative presence, typical of high-quality Napoleon III reception furniture. A very fine example of late 19th-century Parisian cabinetmaking. Condition: Good overall condition, with wear and restorations consistent with age.Period: Late 19th centuryStyle: Napoleon III / Louis XVIMaterials: Ebonized wood and rosewood veneerOrigin: FranceDimensions: To be specifiedProantic SEO keywords: Napoleon III bookcase, 19th-century display cabinet, rosewood furniture, ebonized wood bookcase, antique French furniture, Hippolyte Sauvrezzy, collectible piece, Louis XVI bookcase, antique display cabinet, Parisian cabinetmaking, Napoleon III furniture, antique glass-fronted bookcase.