Description

Postcard signed in person by Salvador DALI which represents him, always so whimsical, with a stuffed swan. The postmark from Cadaques (Spain) indicates that it was sent on November 1, 1971. A handwritten text, signed by a third party "The DALI student presenting his national diploma in advertising communication", is addressed to Georges T (see explanation below), student at the Beaux-Arts of Nancy. DALI signed last, across the left side written on the postcard. Very interesting and funny document!
!Format 10 x 15 cms
Postcard in very good condition (tiny rubbing on the edges)
PROVENANCE : Postcard sent to Georges T. (full name will be communicated to the buyer), painter, collaborator and pupil of DALI in the early 1970s - the last photo of the album presents
