Description

An elegant and luxurious French dining table from the 1970s, designed in the refined Art Deco style. Crafted from richly grained exotic woods and adorned with delicate brass inlays, this impressive piece reflects the glamour and exceptional craftsmanship associated with French decorative furniture of the period. The table features clean architectural lines, enhanced by brass sabots on the legs, providing a distinctive and elegant finishing touch. Designed to combine functionality and aesthetics, it features two side extensions to comfortably accommodate numerous guests. The combination of exotic veneers, brass details and harmonious proportions makes it an exceptional centerpiece for both classic and contemporary interiors.
