Description

Part of a Limoges porcelain service, manufactured by Théodore Haviland. Louis XV shape, gilded border, central gilded monogram surmounted by a crown on the dessert plates, and crown decoration alone on the dinner plates and compotier. Consisting of 23 pieces: 1 compotier (height 13.5 cm, diameter 23 cm), 1 soup plate, 12 dessert plates (diameter 21.5 cm), 9 dinner plates (diameter 24 cm). Good condition, with a small chip on the underside of one dinner plate, slightly worn gilding on one dinner plate, minor wear on the gilding and monograms. (see photos). The monogram represents the letter M, interlaced with the letters J and C (or L?). The crown is a noble model for Count and Countess with 9 branches topped with pearls. Early 19th - early 20th century.
