Description

Lithograph "Les Danseuses" by Raymond Poulet. This lithograph depicts a classical ballet scene featuring two ballerinas, focusing on the preparation, shape and texture of their tutus. Raymond Poulet is renowned for his use of structured, cubist-inspired geometric lines and warm, contrasting color shades, which enable him to create a sense of dynamic movement. Signed and numbered (9/150). A double passe-partout was chosen. The narrow inner border, in dark purple/brown, blends perfectly with the dark background behind the dancers. This creates a subtle contrast. The minimalist metal frame balances the classical elegance of the ballet stage. 66 cm wide, 3 cm deep and 76 cm high. Total weight 7 kg. Translated with
