Description

Elegant pair of Louis XVI-style ormolu sconces, late 19th century. These elegant three-arm sconces feature a refined décor of twisted arms, fluted binnacles and shafts adorned with crossed ribbons and trimmings, in the pure neoclassical Louis XVI taste so popular during the Second Empire. High-quality chasing and attractive antique gilding with a nice patina in the hollows. The bobèches can be unscrewed, a quality manufacturing detail that facilitates maintenance. Electricity in working order. Very beautiful decorative presence for a living room, an entrance or on either side of a mirror or a fireplace. Delivery in Metropolitan France 80EUR.
