Description

An elegant and refined French porcelain tea service by Limoges Unique, France, dating from the mid-20th century, circa 1940-1960, beautifully showcasing the timeless sophistication associated with Limoges porcelain. Marked to the underside "Limoges France Unique", this finely crafted set combines understated luxury with exceptional decorative harmony.Executed in luminous ivory-white porcelain, the service is richly embellished with a deep burgundy enamel band accented by finely hand-applied gilt decoration. Delicate gilt motifs cascade beneath the coloured border, while subtle scattered floral accents enhance the overall refinement without overwhelming the design. The generously gilded handles and spouts create warmth and sophistication, beautifully contrasting with the
