

Large Italian Majolica Planter With Grapes 19th Century

450 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ceramic

Description

Grand Cache-Pot En Majolique Italienne Aux Raisins - XXe Siècle Important Italian majolica cache-pot with hand-painted decoration of bunches of grapes and large stylized foliage on a deep blue background enhanced by yellow and ochre scrolls. This elegant decorative piece features a beautiful flared shape, highlighted by two large side handles adorned with sculpted masks. The decoration, highly representative of Italian production in the Mediterranean tradition, evokes the workshops of Deruta or Montelupo in the twentieth century. The quality of the polyurethane is of the highest quality. The quality of the polychromy, the ornamental richness as well as the generous dimensions give this planter a remarkable decorative presence. It can accommodate a nice-sized plant or be used as an

Dealer

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth

Mobile : 06 99 48 80 76

1 domaine de Montrabech

Lézignan-Corbières 11200

ornamental element in a classic, Mediterranean or contemporary interior. The quality of the polychromy, the ornamental richness as well as the generous dimensions give this planter a remarkable decorative presence. Very good overall condition. No noticeable cracks or chips observed. Dimensions Height: 33.5 cm Width: 54.5 cm