Description

Sublime and spectacular table in the Empire style, after the famous Jacob Desmalter model. It is all-sided in mahogany veneer and richly decorated with gilded bronzes. The uprights are with 4 gilded bronze caryatids, its crosspieces adorned with laurel leaves, rosettes and palmettes. The base has a brace surmounted by an antique-style vase framed by 2 winged sphynxes. A similar model decorated Caroline Murat's bedroom at the Palais de l'Elysée in 1803. Now preserved in Versailles (at the Grand Trianon). Marbre Vert de Mer à gorge (restored). Beautiful quality ; needs some cleaning. 19th century ; circa 1880.
