Description

Abstract composition by Bernard Larcher This oil on canvas is an energetic composition, dominated by sweeping, dynamic brushstrokes in shades of black and dark charcoal. These dense, powerful gestural strokes run across the lower and middle sections of the canvas, creating an impression of dramatic movement and structural tension. In contrast, the background uses a soft, atmospheric palette with touches of peach, salmon and pale pink. The frame of this painting is a minimalist floating wooden frame that creates a structural shadowbox effect, designed to enhance the abstract work without dominating it. Signed lower right "Larcher" and dated (1987). Also monogrammed lower left and countersigned on the back. Work measures 50 cm wide and 65 cm high. Frame measures 51.5 cm wide, 3 cm deep.
