

Ember Stove - Glazed Earthenware - 19th Century

380 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Terracotta

Diameter : 18 sans les anses.

Height : 13cm

Description

Charming little green glazed earthenware braisise stove. The shape is quite usual for this type of stove, with its two handles and triangular protrusions for placing the dish. Green varnish on the upper part, similar to Sarthoises or Normand productions. Beautiful condition, no cracks, just 2 chips on the edge.
